1. Mr. Sprinkle, of the staff of the House Appropriations Committee, informs me that he has discussed our budget with Chairman Cannon, and that no references are to be made to it in any way until we hear further from them.

STATINTL      2. Col. Chambers of the Federal Civil Defense Administration called regarding the status of intelligence for FCDA, and I have discussed the matter with [redacted] who's handling the matter for CIA and who, if necessary, will discuss it further with Col. Chambers.
